History of National FFA Week

Why should we celebrate National FFA Week?

Each year, FFA chapters around the country celebrate National FFA Week. It's a time to share the story of what FFA is and how FFA is preparing future leaders through agricultural education. Currently, FFA has 770,170 student members as part of 8,612 local FFA chapters in all 50 states, Puerto Rico and the U.S. Virgin Islands, and the organization is supported by 48+ million alumni members throughout the U.S. What better way to show your support of FFA than to get involved in FFA Week? Whether it's in person, on the phone or via social media, be sure to share your FFA stories. #FFAweek

What are the roots of National FFA Week?

Designated as a national week in 1947, the week of George Washington's birthday, National FFA Week runs from Saturday to Saturday. The week of George Washington's birthday was selected to celebrate the impact he had on agriculture. FFA Week gives FFA members an opportunity to educate the public about agriculture and show their local impact and story. During the week, chapters conduct a variety of activities to help others in their school and community learn about FFA and agricultural education.

How can celebrating National FFA Week support my chapter, school and community?

By celebrating National FFA Week, the local chapter is able to engage all FFA members, students in the local school corporation, administration, faculty and staff, and alumni and supporters, as well as businesses in the community, to bring awareness of the positive impact FFA and agricultural education has and will have on its members. Sharing each chapter's story only helps to share the positive impact members will have as world-changing future leaders.

School and Community Roles

Explore the role of each different group of people in your school and community during National FFA Week.

FFA Advisor

The FFA advisor is the first point of contact for National FFA Week and should provide approval for all events. The FFA advisor can also assist in coordinating and planning events.

FFA Alumni and Supporters

FFA Alumni and Supporters can assist in helping to plan, coordinate and execute events throughout the week. These individuals can also provide support in the form of funds, grant access and supplies for functions. National FFA Week is also a great time in which to thank FFA Alumni and Supporters through recognition events.

Chapter FFA Officers

FFA chapter officers should work alongside the advisor and FFA Alumni and Supporters to plan and execute the events for the week. This is a great time for chapter officers to help strengthen their team, improve member engagement, and increase recruitment of new and younger members.

Advisory Committee

The advisory committee is a great way to gain support and feedback on the events being planned. This is also a great time to thank your advisory committee for their support and help.

School Leadership

School administration should approve all planned activities (per school rules). This is a great time in which to present to the school board about FFA as well as thank school leadership for their support.

Community Members

National FFA Week provides a great time to welcome community members to events and involve them with the chapter by asking them to help with and provide materials for events. FFA Week is also the perfect opportunity to thank them and recognize them for their support.

Chapter FFA Members

National FFA Week is a time to celebrate FFA and the chapter at your school. Take the time to engage members and have fun through a variety of activities. Form committees prior to the week to and have different members gain even more leadership skills.

General Student Body

This is a great week to share FFA with the general student body to allow them to learn about agriculture and the opportunities available and possibly recruit new members or students into the agriculture classroom. Take the time to engage students outside of FFA to create a tighter knit student body.

Sponsorship Toolkit

PLANNING FOR A POTENTIAL PARTNER MEETING OR PHONE CALL

Pre-Planning

- What are your goals for the visit or phone call?
 - It is important that you have a clear idea of what the expected outcomes of the call or visit are so the agenda can be developed appropriately.
 - If the agenda is too vague, the meeting will not focus on the issues that need to be addressed.
- How much do you know about the company? How much do you know about the person you will be calling or meeting?
 - Take the time to conduct some simple research about the company:
 - What kinds of projects do they produce or support?
 - What connections can you make with their mission and goals?
 - Make as many connections between your organization and the company as possible.
 - Is the person with whom you will be meeting a decision maker, or will he/she need to take your information and requests to a superior?

During the Meeting or Call

- Come prepared with opportunities for engagement:
- Have ideas of possible opportunities for involvement by the potential partner.
 - Sponsorship
 - Judges
 - Mentors
 - Events
 - Fundraisers
- Even if the meeting or call only lets you know what the company IS NOT interested in, the meeting will at least give you information that can be used in a follow-up call.
- Your preparation for the meeting demonstrates how interested you really are in the company.

What to Leave Behind and Next Steps

- Make sure to leave behind a piece of information that the potential partner can use to evaluate possibilities with your organization (i.e., FFA one-page facts sheet, impact report, visibility plan) and be able to share easily with others.
- A pin or some sort of giveaway with the school's or FFA chapter's name on it is also a nice touch.
- Make sure that next steps and roles are defined before the meeting or call ends.
- Prompt and proper follow-up should be conducted after a promising meeting so that your effort is not lost.

Ask Questions and LISTEN

- Don't be the only one doing the talking. Allow the potential partner to share information about the business and offer ideas on how a partnership/relationship might be mutually beneficial.
- Keep your presentation brief and elaborate as questions are asked.

Potential Partner Questions

- What has your exposure to our organization been?
- What interests you most about our organization?
- What other types of organizations does your company partner with?
- What does a successful partnership look like to your company? Does it include employee engagement, brand awareness and equity, student recruiting, connecting other companies to our mission, special perks or something else?
- What are the most critical results you would expect to see from this partnership?

TIPS FOR ASKING LOCAL BUSINESSES FOR DONATIONS

- Include personal stories and the impact that donations can make.
- Keep a spreadsheet of donors with contact information, donation description and any benefits or visibility they received.
- Businesses may be more likely to give if they are offered visibility.
 - Signs or banners in the agriculture education classroom or meeting/event locations
 - Could be specific (Snack Cart provided by)
 - Verbal recognition at events
 - Set amount of time to speak at an event
 - Sponsorship mentioned in the local newspaper
 - Social media shout outs
 - Business logo on any printed materials for events (Special thanks to our sponsors with their logo)
 - Programs
 - Table tents
 - Signage
 - Allow them to provide giveaway items (pens, hats, reusable bags) or coupons
- Individuals and business may be more likely to continue sponsorship if they get special perks.
 - VIP seating and/or early admission
 - Meet and greets
 - T-shirt or gift
- Visibility plans could encourage higher levels of donations (see the Sample Sponsorship Levels below).
 - Get creative: use themed names for the sponsorship levels.
 - If you have any analytics about your program or event, share those. For example, 200 students and their families will see the business logo, or your Facebook page has 200 followers.
- Thank sponsors after events or at the end of the school year.
 - Handwritten notes from students
 - Email
 - Social media
 - Include statistics
 - Include a picture
 - Plaque for their business
 - Banquet recognition
- Be consistent. Individuals and businesses may notice if others get extra benefits.
- In-kind donations are a great option for businesses that can't donate money.
 - Food and beverages
 - Flowers and plants
 - Decorations
 - Printing and signage
 - T-shirts
- Businesses that can't give cash or checks may be able to donate gift cards.
 - Gift cards can be used for giveaways, silent or live auctions and raffles.

Scavenger Hunt

A scavenger hunt can be a great way to get students excited and involved both in and out of the classroom. Below you will find two different types of scavenger hunts with which to engage students.

Scavenger Hunt for the Classroom

Prep:

1. Select the trivia questions you would like to use. (Hint: Use the FFA Facts or Agriculture Trivia to save time!)
2. Print and cut out each question separately.
3. Number each trivia question.
4. Create an answer key.
5. Hide each question around the classroom or ag facility.

Student Instructions:

1. Students will need their own notebook paper numbered (the numbers will depend on how many questions you hid around the room).
2. Students will move about the room to find each question. Once a question is found, they will write down the answer on their paper next to the correct number. (If the question says No. 6 they write the answer next to No. 6 on their paper.)
3. Once students find and answer all of the hidden questions, they turn the paper into you.
4. Number each paper in the order they come in. (Hint: It is best to stay in one spot while students are moving around the room).
5. Wait until each student has turned in their paper.

Who Wins?

1. Grade students with the answer key as papers come in.
2. The students who turn in the papers with the most correct answers first wins.
 - a. Example: If Susie turns in her paper first and misses three, but Juan turns in his paper second and misses zero, Juan wins.
3. Recognize the winner! (Award Ideas: extra credit, candy, etc.)

Scavenger Hunt Around the School

1. Develop clues that can be linked throughout the school. Example, the corduroy resides here — this would lead students to the FFA jacket closet. Each stop needs to then have a clue to go to the next place.
2. Hide the clues in their respective places.
3. Have a surprise at the final destination.

OR

1. Create a list of items they have to complete. And how they have to show completion. Examples:
 - a. Find one friend that is on the livestock judging team. Take a picture with them.
 - b. Find an administrator and take a picture of your thanking them for their support of the chapter.
 - c. This is where we "grow" learning, take a picture. (Answer: Greenhouse).
 - d. Score big when you take your shot at success. (Answer: basketball court)
2. Hide clues in their respective places.
3. Have a surprise at the final destination.

Strengthen Agriculture by Telling the FFA Story!

How can I tell the story of FFA and my chapter? Here are some ideas to help with promotion throughout the community.

Write an editorial for your local newspapers. Highlight the many opportunities FFA has to offer.

Have a local mayor and/or town official sign the National FFA Week Proclamation. Take it a step further and reach out to the governor to sign the proclamation.

Work with local billboard agencies and secure space for an FFA Week billboard. Ask them if they will donate the space for a month or so.

Place "FFA Supporter" signs in the windows of partnering businesses.

Provide "FFA Facts" for your local media and school newspaper.

Work with local newspapers and radio and TV stations to highlight the activities of the chapter and FFA members. Don't forget about your school newspaper and announcements.

Develop an FFA Week supplement for the local paper or for the school newsletter. Make it electronic and post it on the websites.

Utilize social media and the hashtags #FFAWeek and #SpeakAg to share fun facts and activities.

Send a congressional letter to announce National FFA Week.

Hold an open house for the community. Show off your classrooms, facilities and other special chapter areas. You also could do this at an off-site location and not necessarily a farm.

Take food or treats to the morning radio/TV stations. Examples include cookies, candy, cupcakes, etc.

Send in ad slicks to area businesses for possible placement in newsletters, magazines, etc. Work with your local newspaper for donated ad space.

Speak on the radio or have the radio station come to an event at your school during National FFA Week. Use the PSA script to help you plan.

Social Media Tips and Tricks Guide

Our shared goal during National FFA Week is to tell the world about FFA! Thousands of voices spreading the FFA message across social media elevates awareness of FFA and that's where you come in. Your chapter's story is important in helping others learn who we are, what we do and the diversity of FFA across the country. Here are our top 10 tips on using your voice on social media to elevate your chapter and FFA during FFA Week!

Pick one or two social platforms to concentrate on. Don't spread yourself too thin. It's better to be in one place with great stories than everywhere with mediocre stories.

Which social platforms will you concentrate on?

1. _____
2. _____

Before FFA week, plan your posts. You can even write some of them ahead of time. Planning ahead will save time during FFA Week so that you can enjoy the celebration too! Just leave some room for spontaneity. In the boxes below compose two posts for each social platform you selected above. Read the tips below to help you plan! Need to see some examples? Click here!

Social platform 1: _____

2.

Social platform 2: _____

1.

2.

Tip 1:

Use #FFAWeek20 and tag @nationalFFA on all your social posts so people can find and National FFA can share the amazing stories you're telling.

Tip 3:

Remember your FFA voice — a positive, respectful and inspirational tone. If individuals comment on your posts with unkind words, resist the urge to argue with negative comments. You won't change any minds and it will just ruin your day. We like to say, "Hug Your Haters."

Tip 2:

Share what you and your chapter are doing during FFA Week, but don't forget the rest of the year. Does someone in your chapter have an interesting or unique SAE? Share it! Does your chapter have a Living to Serve project? Share it! And of course, share your FFA Week activities too!

Tip 4:

Use Instagram/Facebook stories to tell stories. For instance, your story could be an ongoing "scrapbook" of that day's FFA Week activities.

Tip 5

Try ending your social post with a question or ask others to share their stories in the comments. This will help create engagement and conversation amongst your followers.

Use this space to brainstorm a list of photos and videos that could be used. Don't have any that will work? Brainstorm pictures and videos that can be taken!

Use the highest quality photos and videos you have access to in your posts. These tell the best stories and generate the most engagement.

Compose some guidelines that you could include to help avoid vulgarity, bullying or posting unrelated comments.

If someone is being vulgar, bullying or posting unrelated comments on your posts, hide them. It's good practice to have user guidelines on your page in the about section. Ours is at <https://www.facebook.com/pg/nationalffa/about/> under general information.

MOST important: Every member and every chapter have an important FFA story. Don't be afraid to share yours - we know it will be interesting!

IMPLEMENTATION:

FFA Fundamentals

The "FFA Fundamentals Choice Board" is designed to help students quickly learn FFA basics while exploring FFA.org. This is the perfect activity for an FFA unit or for Discovery and Greenhand FFA Degree candidates.

1. Suggested Use: If you have ample time to complete an FFA unit, then these activities could be stretched over two or more weeks. Some activities require more work than others. If your time is limited, you could put students into groups of four. Each group member would be responsible for completing one block from the "Remember/Understand" row and one block from the "Apply/Analyze/Evaluate" row. Group members would then teach the other group members what they learned. The group would work together to complete the items in the "Create" row.
2. Grading: How you determine if a student has completed the tasks depends on your preference and what resources are available to you. Suggestions include having them email or print something that proves they completed a task or for them to write a brief summary paragraph of a video they watched or article they read.
 - a. Work can be collected weekly or every few weeks for grading.
 - b. Tip: Count the entire choice board grade (each is worth 100 points) as a test or project grade or have it count twice.

SERVICE LEARNING PLANNING GUIDE

You want to make sure that your FFA chapter has a successful service experience, so to help your chapter plan for your FFA Week service event, use the online Service Planning Guide found HERE to walk you through the process.

4 Steps to Planning a Successful Service Event: Investigate, Plan, Serve and Evaluate.

HOW WILL YOU SERVE YOUR COMMUNITY

To create and carry out the best service project possible, include these four steps and use this guide to navigate along the way!

1 INVESTIGATE

To determine how you can best serve, you must find out what your community needs most. By investigating issues facing your community and what causes those issues you ensure that you maximize the impact of your project!

- FIND YOUR TEAM
- DETERMINE THE NEED
- CHOOSE YOUR PROJECT

What are some needs in your community that your chapter could address through a one-time service event?

2 PLAN

For a successful project, set goals and break down each piece of what needs to be accomplished.

- SET S.M.A.R.T. GOALS
- BRAINSTORM COMMUNITY PARTNERS
- CREATE A TIMELINE
- DETERMINE ACTION STEPS AND MATERIALS
- OUTLINE PROJECT PLAN

Set goals for your project and break down each piece that needs to be accomplished. Identify community partners, alumni and supporters and other youth groups to help with the FFA Week service project.

Get funding to support your FFA Week service project by applying for the $400 FFA Day of Service Mini-Grant. Access the application at FFA.org/livingtoserve/grants/.

3 SERVE

Put your plan into action and serve your community!

PROJECT TIPS

Put your leadership into action and make an impact on your community! Make sure to take pictures to share through social media and use #FFAChallengeAccepted #LivingToServe #FFAWeek

4 EVALUATE

Throughout the project, track your progress and gather results. When the project is complete showcase your impacts, celebrate meeting your goals and recognize partners.

- REFLECT AND GATHER RESULTS
- TELL YOUR STORY

Go back to your goals. Did you achieve them? Why or why not? What successes did you have? What barriers did you encounter?

Be sure to share your stories and impacts through the Living to Serve Chapter Challenge to get your chapters enrolled in a drawing for an exclusive T-shirt. (<https://www.ffa.org/ffa-challenge-accepted/>)

Use the online interactive Service Planning Guide as an activity in class. Fill in the fillable text boxes in the planning guide online and print off a copy for review.

It is also printer friendly if you don't have access to computers in your classroom and need to print off a copy for each person involved to have a physical copy.

Day of Service Examples

Across the country FFA chapters are making an impact in their community through service events. Here are a few examples to inspire your FFA Chapter to take action during National FFA Week with a Living to Serve Day of Service event.

Service events must meet an actual/authentic community need. For example, hosting a thank you breakfast for community members or farmers during FFA Week would not be funded under the grant guidelines. Serving a breakfast at the local soup kitchen would be funded as they can demonstrate a strong need.

Below are some Living to Serve Day of Service Mini-Grant events that were funded through the grant program. Use these to help inspire your FFA Week service event.

Wayne FFA, Neb.

Day of Service Mini-Grant – Community Safety

After speaking with a representative from AgrAbility and learning of some local farm accidents, the recently chartered Wayne FFA Chapter sprang into action. From small scrapes and bruises to serious injuries, the chapter wanted to ensure producers were prepared for any farm emergencies. During Farm Safety Week, members provided first aid kits to area farmers that included basic first aid supplies as well as tourniquets.

Glades Day FFA, Fla.

Day of Service Mini-Grant – Hunger, Health and Nutrition

A local supervisor at a senior citizen center reached out to Glades Day FFA and expressed a need for creating healthy outdoor activities. The chapter decided to build a raised garden bed that would be accessible to all. Senior citizens enjoyed the activity so much that they requested a second raised bed, which the chapter built.

Abernathy FFA, Texas

Day of Service Mini-Grant – Community Engagement

During their annual FFA Week day-of-service event, the Abernathy FFA Chapter made over 400 pieces of sidewalk chalk. The members donated the chalk to several organizations that serve at-risk youth in the surrounding communities.

Woodbury FFA, Conn.

Day of Service Mini-Grant – Environmental Responsibility

Inspired by SAEs at the Bent of the River Audubon Center, the Woodbury FFA Chapter decided to engage all members in volunteering at the site. The chapter removed one ton of invasive species from a two-acre location and gleaned 400 pounds of produce to donate to local food banks. Members also built bird boxes and baffles to protect nesting bird eggs from predators.

If you have questions about the Living to Serve Mini-Grant application or questions about the new Living to Serve Chapter Challenge you can email the team at LTS@FFA.org.
