News Release

2021 IOWA FFA REPORTER'S SCRAPBOOK CAREER DEVELOPMENT

93rd Iowa FFA State Leadership Conference

DES MOINES, IA - The Iowa FFA Reporter's Scrapbook Leadership Event was held at Iowa Events Center, Des Moines, on Monday, April 19, 2021. Twelve chapters participated in this year's Career Development Event (CDE). The first place chapter for the event was the Red Oak FFA Chapter. Their agriculture education instructors and FFA advisors are Mr. Alan Spencer and Ms. Tess Mittag. The second place chapter for the event was the Albia FFA Chapter. Their agriculture education instructor and FFA advisor is Mr. Daryl Schofield.

Chapter Reporters assemble a scrapbook that includes FFA news articles, photos of FFA members, certificates of achievement, and chapter correspondence. This event is designed to stimulate and develop the preparation of materials and the use of photography showing achievements of members and the FFA chapter. The Iowa FFA Reporter's Scrapbook CDE was made possible with support from Wallace's Farmer through the Iowa FFA Foundation.

About Iowa FFA Association

The Iowa FFA Association is a youth organization of over 16,300 student members as part of 248 local FFA chapters across Iowa. The FFA mission is to make a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education. The Iowa FFA Association was organized by delegates from 23 schools at Iowa State College on May 17, 1929 and is an integral part of public instruction in agriculture. The Iowa Department of Education provides leadership and helps set direction for FFA as a service to local agricultural education programs.
