2024 IOWA FFA JOB INTERVIEW LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT EVENT

96th Iowa FFA State Leadership Conference

AMES, IA - The Iowa FFA Job Interview Leadership Development Event (LDE) was held at the Iowa State Center, Ames, on Monday, April 15, 2024. 12 individuals participated in this year's LDE. The first place individual for the event was Karly Christensen from the Winterset FFA Chapter. Their agriculture education instructor and FFA advisor is Ms. Kaylee Berry. The second place individual for the event was Lillian Howe from the Fremont Mills FFA Chapter at Tabor. Their agriculture education instructor and FFA advisor is Ms. Amy Head.

Members participating in the Job Interview Leadership Development Event had to demonstrate their ability in filling out a job application form, writing a letter of application, preparing a resume, interviewing properly, answering questions clearly, and presenting the proper impression. The Iowa FFA Job Interview LDE was made possible with support from Christensen Farms through the Iowa FFA Foundation.

About Iowa FFA Association

The Iowa FFA Association is a youth organization of more than 19,800 student members as part of 263 local FFA chapters across Iowa. The FFA mission is to make a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education. The Iowa FFA Association was organized by delegates from 23 schools at Iowa State College on May 17, 1929 and is an integral part of public instruction in agriculture. The Iowa Department of Education provides leadership and helps set direction for FFA as a service to local agricultural education programs.
