2022 IOWA FFA JOB INTERVIEW LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT EVENT

94th Iowa FFA State Leadership Conference

AMES, IA - The Iowa FFA Job Interview Leadership Event was held at the Iowa State Center, Ames, on Monday, April 11, 2022. Twelve individuals participated in this year's Leadership Development Event (LDE). The first place individual for the event was Tucker Rohrig from the Creston FFA Chapter. Their agriculture education instructors and FFA advisors are Mrs. Kelsey Bailey and Mr. Ethan Faeth. The second place individual for the event was Jackie Miller from the Maquoketa FFA Chapter. Their agriculture education instructors and FFA advisors are Mr. Matt Lansing and Ms. Cassie Miller.

Members participating in the Job Interview Leadership Development Event had to demonstrate their ability in filling out a job application form, writing a letter of application, preparing a resume, interviewing properly, answering questions clearly, and presenting the proper impression. The Iowa FFA Job Interview LDE was made possible with support from Christensen Farms through the Iowa FFA Foundation.

About Iowa FFA Association

The Iowa FFA Association is a youth organization of over 18,300 student members as part of 252 local FFA chapters across Iowa. The FFA mission is to make a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education. The Iowa FFA Association was organized by delegates from 23 schools at Iowa State College on May 17, 1929 and is an integral part of public instruction in agriculture. The Iowa Department of Education provides leadership and helps set direction for FFA as a service to local agricultural education programs.
